Friday 8:00-12:00 Mythbusting ~Dr. Cliff Faver

HOURL 1 –BASIC SKIN INFORMATION: Information overload? Good info vs. Bad? How do we know the difference? Dr. Faver gives you the formula with science to know how to make informed choices for your client's pets' needs and health. We will put the "why" in what you do.

HOURL 2 – PRODUCTS: Could my products or what I am doing actually be causing some of these skin issues? Is the information I hear or read truth, myth, or advertising? Let's eliminate some myths and streamline our job of picking the products you use.

Disclaimer: We will discuss types or classes of products, not individual products or brands.

HOURL 3 – TECHNIQUES: Isn't all shampoo and conditioner the same? I have been bathing dogs for 15 years and have been doing just fine. If that is your thought process, I encourage you to come and learn new techniques, which, based on the science, can make your job easier. Learn how to work smarter, not harder, while maximizing the benefits of your products and impressing your clients.

HOURL 4 - APPROACH TO SKIN ISSUES: Frustrated with all the dogs with skin issues? Frustrated with veterinarians just prescribing cortisone, antibiotics, diet changes, and shampoo, and none of it ever seems to work? Come learn the "why" things don't work and explore other ways of approaching the problem.
